Reception on Arrival in Bay.

The returning warriors did not lack an enthusiastic reception on water, as, besides the Patrol, the steamboats Correction and Queens and a small fleet of tuss swapped cheers with the lofty sided transport all the way from Quarantine to Hoboken. The story of one of the finest ex-ploits of the tankers is told by Lieux transport all the way from Quaranthe to Hobolea.

Losses of none of the artifiery contingents were heavy, but their fighting was, and they brought back many men with decorations and some with scars Cot. De Wit C. Wald of the 195th Artiflery, home in Brooklyn, said his command had twelve killed and 5fty wounded. His men blasted a way for got about two miles, shooting down the Twenty-kixth French and Twenty- fermans with our eight machine guns the Twenty-sixth French and Twenty-the Twenty-sixth French and Twenty-minth American divisions at Kriem-naid our six pounders. As we amided helde Stellung, each of the guns firing 5.060 rounds and couring out in fine con-dition.

Brave Ambulance Drivers.

Drivers scorned danger. It was a 19 to 1 shot that half an hour after a fighter was hit sie non-combatant ambulance driver had him in hospital.

Col. Karl D. Klen of Buffalo, whose men were mostly of German and Polish extraction and came from the east side of the city, said they fought with a fervor that would do honor to Americans of the purest native lineage. After the signing of the armistice many of the Buffalo men of German origin were ambitions to go into Germany as part of the army of occupation. Just to make a few remarks to the golons of their own ancestors.

Quite naturally there were some brides born on the east side of the Atlantic aboard the America. One is the partner of Lieut.
